

Captains Courageous Festival

Gloucester, Massachusetts

Saturday, March 6, 2010

9:00am – 9:30pm

READINGS

9:00 – 11:00 1st Reading
Cape Ann Museum (CAM)

11:15 – 12:45 2nd Reading
Sawyer Free Library (SFL)

12:45 – 1:45 LUNCH BREAK

1:45 – 4:00 3rd Reading
Gloucester Maritime
Heritage Center (GMHC)

4:15 – 6:00 Final Reading
Cape Ann Art Haven (CAAH)

6:00 – 7:00 DINNER BREAK

MUSIC & MOVIE

Cape Ann Community Cinema (CACC)

7:00 – 7:30 Three Sheets to the Wind
Cape Ann sea shanty singers & musicians

7:30 – 9:30 CAPTAINS COURAGEOUS
1937 film with Spencer Tracy

LOCATIONS

CAM	27 Pleasant Street	978-283-0455
SFL	2 Dale Avenue	978-281-9763
GMHC	3 Harbor Loop	978-281-0470
CAAH	180B Main Street	978-283-3888
CACC	21 Main Street, 2 nd fl	978-282-1988

BOOKS are available at the Sawyer Free Library, The Bookstore and Dogtown Book Shop in Gloucester, and at the Rockport Library and Toad Hall Bookstore in Rockport.

*Readings and related events are free to all;
film tickets are $10*

FAMILY & CHILDREN'S ACTIVITIES

10:00 am – noon
Sawyer Free Library (SFL)

Ongoing ocean-themed crafts for children ages pre-school and older in the Children's Library.

10:00 am – 5:00 pm
CAPE ANN MUSEUM (CAM)

Ongoing activities for families all day in the Education Room including:

- * Captains Courageous scavenger hunt
- * Paper dory decorating
- * What it is? examine fishing artifacts
- * Where in the World did Gloucester Captains Go? mapping activity for all ages

11:00 – 12:00 noon
CAPE ANN MUSEUM (CAM)

TOUR of Museum's Fisheries & Maritime Galleries

12:30 – 1:15 GLOUCESTER MARITIME
4:15 – 5:00 HERITAGE CENTER (GMHC)

Captains Courageous tour of Gorton's Seafood Gallery for families and children 5+. Explore what life was like aboard a fishing schooner at port and while fishing on the Grand Banks in the 19th century. Highlights include: sounding a foghorn, making rope, charting a course and menu planning for hungry dorymen.

CONTACT: For information or to volunteer to read or help on March 6, please contact: seARTS at 978-281-1222 or info@searts.org